Mrs. C. L. Byron.

Mrs. C. L. Byron, of 546 Lincoln avenue, Chicago, Ill., is President of the Chicago German Women's Club. She has the following to say of Peruna, the great catarrh remedy, which relieved her of a serious case of catarrh of the bladder:

Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.
Gentlemen—“I was cured of a very severe case of bladder trouble which the doctors did not know how to reach. I had severe headache and dragging pains with it, but before the second bottle was used I felt much relieved, and after having used the fifth bottle life looked different to me. This was nearly a year ago, and I have had no recurrence of the trouble. I cannot praise Peruna too highly.”—MRS. C. L. BYRON.

Prosecution Not Satisfied With Ruling Against Illinois Anti-Trust Law.

THE 1891 LAW IS VOID

That Is the Decision Handed Down By Judge Haney In the State Circuit Court Yesterday.

He Says the Present Law As An Amendment to the Law of 1891 Is Wholly Unconstitutional.

Chicago, June 21.—In a decision given yesterday by Judge Elbridge Haney of the state circuit court held that the Illinois anti-trust law of 1891 is unconstitutional and void in all its parts. He ordered a finding in favor of the defendant in the case of the people on relation of the attorney general against the Butler Street Foundry and Iron company.

By Judge Haney's decision practically all that was left of the anti-trust statutes of Illinois are declared to be a nullity. In 53 other cases similar to the one passed upon by the court, a like finding was entered pursuant to a stipulation among the attorneys in the case. The prosecution based its case principally upon the provisions of Sec. 1 of the act of 1891, which provides for the filing of affidavits by corporations annually with the secretary of state showing that they are not a party to any pool, combination or trust.

In passing opinion upon the merits of the case Judge Haney held that the law of 1891 amended the law of 1891 and that the supreme court of the United States has decided that the law of 1891 is unconstitutional. The separate trust act of 1893 was declared to be illegal by the federal supreme court last March.

The decision has a direct bearing upon a large number of cases that have been begun against manufacturing corporations to collect fines for non-compliance with the provisions of the anti-trust law in regard to the filing of affidavits. Early in 1899 Attorney General Aiken for the state of Illinois, and State's Attorney Dineen of Cook county began 1,200 suits in the courts of Cook county to recover $8,050 from each defendant, or a total of nearly $10,000,000. The trust statutes provide that Sept. 1 of each year the secretary of state shall address a letter to every corporation demanding an answer under oath as to whether the corporation is a party to any pool, combination or trust. It was to recover a penalty for non-compliance with this statute that the suits were instituted.

Counsel for the prosecution gave notice of an appeal to the state supreme court.

A King's Funeral.

Dresden, Saxony, June 21.—The body of the late king will be brought here this evening at 9 o'clock. It will be placed in the court church and remain there until the interment, which will take place next Monday evening at 9 o'clock in the crypt of the church. In the meantime the body of his majesty will lie in state for public view. Emperor William and a large number of the German princes will attend the funeral. It is possible that the emperor of Austria, Francis Joseph, who was a great friend of King Albert, will also attend the ceremony. The Saxony ministry has proclaimed Prince George, brother of the late king, King of Saxony.

Court In Mourning.

London, June 21.—The court will go into mourning for three weeks for the King of Saxony, but the order of mourning will be suspended during the coronation festivities. At the end of the festivities attending his coronation, which last from June 23 to July 4 inclusive, King Edward will go on a cruise on one of the royal yachts to recuperate from the fatigues of the ceremonies.

Many Lives Lost.

Tacoma, Wash., June 21.—The fire department of this city have sent men, engines and hose on a special train to Buckley in this county, which is threatened with complete destruction by forest fires raging between that town and Enumclaw, King county. Undoubtedly many lives of mountain campers and loggers have been lost.

Main Issues Accepted.

Rome, June 21.—The papal secretary of state, Cardinal Rampolla, has assured the Rt. Rev. Thomas O'Gorman, bishop of Sioux Falls, S. D., that the Vatican accepts the propositions of Judge Taft, governor of the Philippine Islands, regarding the disposition of the friar lands, on all the main points, but dissents on minor points.

Ninth Infantry Returns.

San Francisco, June 21.—The United States transport Hancock arrived last night from Manila. The Hancock brings the headquarters and ten companies of the Ninth Infantry besides 400 enlisted men, 300 casuals and 50 military prisoners.

A Large Field.

Chicago, June 21.—Thirteen horses are entered to start in today's American derby, making one of the largest fields ever seen in the race.

MINERS ARE QUIET

Nothing Eventful Is Reported From the Anthracite District.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., June 21.—Quiet still prevails around strike headquarters, things not having been so dull since the anthracite mine workers suspended operations six weeks ago. Nothing new has developed and neither President Mitchell nor the coal company officials have anything to say regarding the situation. Reports from the entire region are to the effect that all the mining towns are very quiet and that the 150,000 idle men and boys are keeping away from the collieries. The local unions continue to hold meetings for the purpose of transacting business in connection with carrying on the strike in their localities and to give relief where it is needed.

The flurry occasioned by the call for a special national convention at Indianapolis has entirely subsided. No information on what the probable action of the convention will be can be had here. News from the West is eagerly awaited by the great body of strikers. President Mitchell's attention was called to the explosion in the Williamson (W. Va.) mine, in which five men were reported to have been killed by someone throwing dynamite down the shaft. The national leader said he knew no more about the affair than what he saw in the newspapers, and therefore had nothing to say. He was non-committal when asked whether he had started an investigation as to the cause of the explosion.

District President John N. Fahey of the Schuylkill campaign arrived here last night. He said he knew nothing about the report that the Reading company would shortly attempt to start a colliery. He said if the company intended to take such a step it would have an extremely difficult time in securing men to go into the mines to cut coal.

Injunction Violated.

Clarksburg, W. Va., June 21.—Thos. Haggerty, Bernard Rice and eight or ten other organizers and discharged miners were arrested at a miners' mass meeting here yesterday after noon for violating Judge Jackson's injunction. Mother Jones, the labor organizer, spoke for some time, but was not molested. A hearing will be given those arrested later. They have not yet secured bail.

"MOTHER" JONES.

STUPENDOUS AGGREGATION

"Big Four" Packers Are On the Point of Combining.

Chicago, June 21.—A New Jersey corporation, rivaling the United States Steel corporation in magnitude is projected. It plans to be a billion dollar concern. It may be called the American Meat company.

It is announced that a gigantic consolidation has been decided upon. The packing houses that have agreed to form the big combine are what is known as "The Big Four," and are Armour & Co., Swift & Co., Nelson Morris & Co., and the G. H. Hammond company. Other concerns may be admitted. Even without additions the combination of the capital of the four firms will make a stupendous centralization of wealth.

Better Perplexed.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 21.—The "varsity" race this afternoon is regarded by those who bet as a great perplexity. If popular judgment is taken, Cornell is the favorite.

STARVE THE REDS

Paterson, N. J. Has At Last Grown Weary of Its Brood of Anarchists.

WILL STARVE THEM OUT

Business Men of That Riot-Ridden City Have Entered Upon a Plan of Good Riddance.

Anarchists Will Not Be Given Employment Any Place in the City.

Paterson, N. J., June 21.—Mayor Hinchliffe seems to be in complete control of the situation here, backed as he is by the entire peace-controlling force of the city and county and a goodly portion of the state militia. The soldiers' presence has had a deterrent effect upon the reds and they are not in evidence in the city.

The troops remained on duty all night and were relieved by the deputies this morning. No troops will do duty in the day-time unless there should be serious trouble.

An organization has been completed composed of fifty wealthy business men of this city, to be known to the public as the Paterson vigilance committee, but the membership and proceedings are not to be made public. Private detectives have already been engaged to shadow the leading reds. The anarchists are to be induced to leave Paterson quietly if possible. If they do not go the committee is said to have its own plan of action. One of the methods to be employed is said to be the keeping of a blacklist, and no matter where in Paterson a man on it obtains work his employer will be notified to dismiss him.

If this plan be carried out it will starve out of the city all anarchists who may come here. It is said the committee has $250,000 pledged by the men composing it to carry out its purposes.

CONGRESSIONAL

The House Works Night and Day On Philippine Bill.

Washington, June 21.—Debate on the Philippine civil government bill continued yesterday in the house from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m., and at a session held last night. The speakers were given close attention, each side enthusiastically applauding its respective orators. The isthmian canal bill was sent to conference after the senate amendment had been non-concurred in. The house reiterated the position it had taken on the army appropriation bill by ignoring the action of the senate and sending the bill back to the senate after voting to adhere to its disagreement to the objectionable army post amendments.

No business of importance was transacted by the senate in open session except to agree to a conference report finally disposing of the military academy appropriation bill. Soon after the disposition of routine business the senate went into executive session and at 3:10 p. m. adjourned until Monday.

Crowding the President.

Washington, June 21.—The work of demolishing the interior of the White House has progressed so rapidly that the president finds himself cramped for space, rendering it difficult to transact the business of his office. Owing to this condition of affairs he yesterday determined that hereafter he would be unable to receive any callers except senators and members of government officials and those having only the most urgent business.

Marietta Sails.

Washington, June 21.—The gunboat Marietta has left the New York navy yard under orders to proceed to San Juan, Porto Rico. Here the gunboat will lie for a short time to await developments in Venezuela. If affairs there quiet down and do not appear to warrant a reinforcement of the ships already on their way to La Guayra, she will proceed to Colon to relieve the gunboat Machias of her watch on the isthmian affairs.

Big Embezzlement Charged.

Philadelphia, June 21.—As a result of the assignment of the United States Trust company the police are looking for Henry P. McDowell, its president, a member of the New York bar, to arrest him on information sworn to by Charles L. Brown, assignee, charging him with larceny of its securities and embezzlement of its funds to the value of $50,000. It is believed, however, that McDowell is already on his way to Europe.

Exaggerated Story.

Springfield, Ill., June 21.—Colonel Theo. Ewart, assistant adjutant general of Illinois, has returned from El Dorado, where he investigated the alleged outrages on negroes, in accordance with instructions of Governor Yates. He submitted to the governor a report of existing conditions in Saline county, in which he says the reports have been greatly exaggerated.

Kitcheners' Movements.

Cape Town, June 21.—Lord Kitchenier will arrive here from Pretoria June 23 and will sail hence for England the same day.

SHARP CONTRASTS

Shown Between Conditions Governing Present and Future Trade.

New York, June 21.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade today says: Conditions governing present and future trade show very sharp contrasts. While the immediately present situation is clouded by the rather less favorable industrial outlook and the prospects of an extension of the coal strike in the bituminous fields, the continued favorable progress made by all the leading crops lends assurance that once the present strained condition of industrial affairs is relieved, a large and prosperous fall and winter business is assured. That in spite of disturbances, past and present, a heavy business is going forward is proved by the continued fine reports of railroad earnings for this season of the year, very heavy bank clearings and the comparatively small number of business embarrassments reported. It of course must be borne in mind that the coal trade troubles, though making their influence felt in a wider area than before, are still comparatively localized, and outside of sections immediately affected, in such places as the central West, the Southwest and the Northwest, business, both present and for future delivery is of good volume in most instances in excess of a year ago.

With the exception of too much moisture in the Southwest interfering with the harvesting and condition of wheat, and continued dryness in Texas spoiling corn and impairing cotton conditions, the agricultural outlook is practically without flaws.

President Is Willing.

Washington, June 21.—Senator Fairbanks of Indiana last evening presented to President Roosevelt Colonel James B. Coryell of Philadelphia, commander-in-chief, and other members of a committee of the Spanish-American War Veterans, who invited the president to attend the third national encampment of the Spanish-American War Veterans at Indianapolis in September. The president expressed a desire to be present if he could make arrangements.

Men Wanted In Kansas.

Kansas City, Mo., June 21.—Fewer than 300 men went from Kansas City to the wheat fields yesterday, although 3,000 could have found work. Some farmers are offering as high as $3 a day, it is said. The Kansas state employment agency at Topeka reports inability to supply one-tenth of the men asked for.

A UNIQUE STRIKE

Wabash Working-Men Go On Strike In Behalf of Their Employer.

HE WANTED A "RAISE"

The Managing Member of the Firm Thought He Wasn't Getting a Big Enough Salary.

His Employees Took the Same View and Dissenting Members of Firm Came to Time.

Wabash, Ind., June 21.—It is not often that workmen go on strike for an increase of wages for their employer, but this occurred this week when the employees of the Syracuse Manufacturing company, sixty in number, quit because D. C. Lamb, owner of one-fourth of the concern, who has had the management of it, tendered his resignation on the ground that he was entitled to more than $1,000 a year as salary. The plant is owned by Lamb, Win Runyon, each one-fourth, and J. A. Browne, one-half. Lamb wanted $1,500 a year, asserting that by reason of experience and ability he can earn that sum elsewhere. His partners objected and Mr. Lamb declined to continue at work. The employees sided with him and requested Browne and Runyon to concede the increase, but they refused and the sixty employees struck. Arbitration was then proposed and three men were selected in the usual form to hear the statements on both sides. The result was that a compromise on $1,300 was reached. Lamb was satisfied and the men all returned to work.

INTERESTING TEST

"No Gas No Pay" Is Being Tried In Muncie Courts.

Muncie, Ind., June 21.—A case is in progress in the local courts that will be of interest to all gas towns, the issue being whether a subscriber to a natural gas company shall pay full rates, when gas is insufficient and he is compelled to purchase wood or other fuel to make up the deficiency. Wm. Rittenhouse, representing several hundred subscribers of local gas companies as well as claims of more than $100,000 against these companies, alleges that last winter and for several winters previous, he was compelled by a gas company to pay regular rates, while he was purchasing other fuel to keep warm. He sued to obtain rebates amounting to the total sum expended in purchasing other fuels. If Rittenhouse wins the suit several hundred other claims will be filed at once.

Whitecap Victim Insane.

Bloomington, Ind., June 21.—Henry Demming, who alleged a few weeks ago that he had been assaulted by whitecaps, caused excitement in the streets yesterday by crying and screaming for help because whitecaps were after him. He found his way into a physician's office, where he had two hard spasms, in the meantime combating what he imagined was a band of whitecaps, which sought to injure him. It is thought that the whipping he received unbalanced his mind. He is now in jail and will likely be sent to an asylum.

Diehl Case Ended.

Newcastle, Ind., June 21.—The Henry circuit court has sustained a demurrer in the case of John Diehl, and this will probably end the proceedings against him. He was charged with causing the death of Mary Farwig of Richmond, was convicted and granted a new trial by the supreme court. The case will hardly be called up again.

Aurora, Ind., June 21.—The Royer wheel works at Aurora partially burned yesterday. The loss was $75,000. Over 300 people are temporarily out of employment.

Tugboat Burned.

Evansville, Ind., June 21.—The Alice Barr, a tugboat, was burned yesterday with a loss of about $8,000. The insurance was $1,500.

TO TALK THINGS OVER

Republican Committeemen Will Get Together Next Thursday.

Indianapolis, June 21.—Chairman Goodrich, who was here today, has issued a call for a meeting of the Republican state committee next Thursday in Indianapolis. As usual no reason is given for calling the members of the committee together at this time, further than that the situation is to be discussed. Since Goodrich took active charge of the organization he has kept the district chairmen doing more or less discussing of the situation among themselves and the party workers in their localities. He is making a successful effort to impress on the members of the organization that they were elected to look after the interests of the party and their candidates, and the result is already apparent. It looks as if the organization, before the campaign opens, will be in fine fighting fettle. The frequent meetings of the committee give the members a chance to get in touch with things throughout the state and to advise with each other as to the best policy. The condition seems to warrant the prediction that if the Republicans should not win this time it will not be the fault of Chairman Goodrich and the others at the head of the organization, as they are losing no time in getting matters in their charge in ship shape.

It was announced today that the Marion club will have a jubilee celebration in July, when the last of its indebtedness will be removed. This is the dominant Republican club in local affairs, and in many respects it is one of the greatest political clubs of the kind in the country. It was organized in 1890 and it has a membership of 1,000 men, who are hustling local politicians. The club can't be defeated in local politics when it starts for anything. It has property now valued at nearly $50,000, and plans are being discussed for a handsome new building that will probably be erected within the next two years. The Democrats are getting ready to take possession of the property they have leased for the Indiana club, and they will probably be ready for business with a big celebration by the middle of next month.

He Knew Washington.

Mark Twain tells a story of an old colored man in the south who professed to have known George Washington.

"I asked him," says the humorist, "if he had been in the boat when George Washington crossed the Delaware, and he instantly replied: 'Lor', Massa,
I steered dat boat.' 'Well,' said I,
'do you remember when George took the hack at the cherry tree?' He looked worried for a minute, and then, with a beaming smile, said: 'Why, suah, Massa, I dun drove dat hack mahself.'"

When war is declared some men get drunk; when peace comes, they get drunk; when a victory is won, they get drunk, and when a battle is lost they get drunk. Great depressions as well as exaltations of spirits, finds many men and women too ready to drown sorrow or emphasize happiness in drink. And then between times, when there is "nothing doing," they drink to drive away the blues.—Ex.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound of imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by

"The Stitch In Time"

A Lesson in Practical Economy.

It must have been a woman, a mother of children who coined that familiar saying, "A stitch in time saves nine." For it is the mother who realizes how the little rent becomes a yawning tear if not promptly mended. So when little Willie comes in dragging his sled, hungry for a "piece," and his mother spies a rent in his coat she says, "Take your coat off, Willie, while I mend that hole." Willie pleads to wait until evening, but in vain. "By evening you won't have any coat left to mend," his mother says, "if I let that hole go now."

The peculiar thing is that a woman should so limit the application of a truth which she so thoroughly understands.

It's just as true of sickness as of anything else, that "A stitch in time saves nine." Women suffer for long years because of the neglect to care for the health when the first symptoms of womanly disease begin to appear. Procrastination is the thief of health as well as the thief of time. The woman who is weak or sick and who says "To-morrow and to-morrow" is doing violence to her own practical good sense, which will not let a torn garment go an hour unmended because she knows that the longer the rent is neglected the harder it is to repair.

DON'T PUT IT OFF.

If you are weak or sick do not put off for another day the timely care which will lead you back to health. That weak woman can be made strong and sick women made well is proved by a multitude of women witnesses who have been perfectly and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

"I have been using your medicine with good results," writes Mrs. Lula Hines, of Fraser, Wayne Co., Ky. "You may remember I applied to you for advice. When I wrote you I was a physical wreck, suffering from irritation of the uterus and indigestion. For nearly two years no one knew what I suffered. I consulted Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., and he kindly told me to try his 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I followed his advice, and before I had used one bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' great was the change in my condition. Continued the use of your medicine and my health improved steadily. To-day I am in good health, have cheeks and clear skin, and have gained in flesh. Am willing to have you publish this if you think it will aid suffering women to find relief. I thought never would be well again. Tried the best doctors in Fraser, but none relieved me until I got your medicines, 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' These are the best medicines in the world. I would not give them up for all the doctors in Fraser. Please pardon me for not writing sooner, for I owe my life to Dr. R. V. Pierce and his wonderful medicines.

"A word too for your little 'Pellets.' They are the best for indigestion and distress of stomach and constipation. I used ten bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' three of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and one of the 'Pellets.'"

CONSIDER THE CONTRAST.

There is no better example of what "Favorite Prescription" will do for sick women than is furnished by Mrs. Hines. She was a physical wreck. Her suffering for nearly two years was beyond the power of words to express. She tried the best available doctors and got no relief. She consulted Dr. Pierce, by letter. Received his free advice, began the use of "Favorite Prescription," and persevered until cured. To-day she is able to say, "I am in good health, have rosy cheeks and clear skin, and have gained in flesh. I owe my life to Dr. R. V. Pierce and his wonderful medicines."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It is a wonderful tonic for worn-out or worked-out women, curing nervousness, sleeplessness, headache, backache and restoring the lost health. It is a purely vegetable preparation, and cannot disagree with the most delicate constitution.

"For two years I had been a sufferer from female weakness and uterine trouble," writes Mrs. J. Muschinski, of Marathon, Marathon Co., Wis. "I could do no work, and could hardly stand on my feet. Suffered from bearing-down pains, headache, pain in left side and back, and pain near the heart. Also had catarrh, breath was short and I had a dry cough. Was nervous, felt down-hearted and had but little hope for recovery. After reading your 'Medical Adviser' I wrote to you for advice. You advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I followed your advice, and after taking six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and five of 'Golden Medical Discovery' my troubles left me, and I feel like a new person. I can cheerfully recommend your medicines to all suffering weak women."

AN EXTRAORDINARY OFFER.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., invites weak and sick women to consult him by letter, free. All correspondence is held as sacredly confidential, and the written confidences of women are guarded by the same strict professional privacy observed by Dr. Pierce and his staff in personal consultations with weak and sick women at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Accept no substitute for "Favorite Prescription." There is no other medicine "just as good" for womanly ills.

ONE THOUSAND AND EIGHT.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser contains one thousand and eight large pages and over seven hundred illustrations. This modern medical work is sent free on receipt of stamp to pay expense of mailing only. Send twenty-one one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or thirty-one stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

JUST IN TIME.

Down in Health and Strength Nervous, Irritable, Ache All Over, a Depressed Condition Rapidly Changed.

Mrs. Edgar Howarth, of 131 south Cleveland St., Seymour, Ind., says: "I was a victim of severe nervousness and was kind of run down in health. I heard of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills and thought I would test them and got a box of the pills at A. J. Pellens drug store and now I am pleased to say my health in general is greatly improved. I consider these pills have brought about this change in my condition."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 c. a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature A. W. Chase, M. D. are on every package.

When Gold Looks Green.

Gold can be beaten out so thin that it allows light to pass through it, in which case, though it still appears brilliant yellow by reflected light, it is green as viewed by transmission—that is, by the light that passes through it. This curious effect can easily be observed by laying a piece of gold leaf upon a plate of glass and holding it between the eye and the light, when the gold will appear semitransparent and of a leek green color.

And There Are Others.

Wages—Old man Blowitz has a remarkable memory, hasn't he? Naggs—Wonderful. Why, he actually remembers a lot of things that never happened.—Chicago Record-Herald.

How to Avoid Trouble.

Now is the time to provide yourself and family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed before the summer is over, and if procured now may save you a trip to town in the night or in your busiest season. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful medicine in use for bowel complaints, both for children and adults. No family can afford to be without it. For sale by C. W. Milhouse.

Not Wearing Apparel.

Columbus, Ohio, June 21.—In the bankruptcy case of Hanna Levy of Circleville, the United States court yesterday held that diamonds cannot be considered as wearing apparel, but must be regarded as the equivalent of cash. Mrs. Levy sought to retain possession of certain diamonds, among them an engagement and a wedding ring, on the ground that they were wearing apparel.

No Action Taken.

Washington, June 21.—The Republican senators held another conference yesterday on the question of Cuban reciprocity, and after three hours' discussion adjourned subject to the call of Chairman Allison without action. Almost all the Republican senators who are in the city were present.

Contrary to Ordinance.

Rensselaer, Ind., June 21.—William Nowels has sued the town for $15,000. He charges that a cow was grazing in a street, contrary to a city ordinance, and frightened his horse, which ran away and injured Nowels and his wife.

A Narrow Escape.

Sullivan, Ind., June 21.—While Mr. and Mrs. John Kane were driving from here to Linton yesterday their buggy was struck by a freight train at Bugger. They were thrown out but escaped serious injury.

Destructive Forest Fire.

Salinda, Col., June 21.—Forest fires in the vicinity of Mount Ouray, southwest of this city, have swept up one gulch and down another, burning miles and miles of valuable timber.

Only Sunburned.

Last summer two little girls in a College avenue family were repeatedly remonstrated with by their indulgent mother for playing bareheaded in the sun. "You will be burned so badly," said she to them finally, "that people will think you are black children." Her warning had little effect, however, and she gave up trying to keep their hats on.

One day she sent them to a neighbor a block or so distant to make some inquiries concerning a washwoman. Mrs. S., the neighbor in question, mistook them for the children of a Mrs. Black who lived in another street nearby.

"You are the little Black children, are you not?" she asked. "Oh, no," came the prompt response from the elder. "Only sunburned."—Indianapolis News.

Wonderful Stones.

The brain of the tortoise was supposed to contain a wonderful stone which was efficacious in extinguishing fire and when placed under the tongue would produce prophetic inspiration. Another stone possessing the latter property was to be found in the eye of the hyena. The head of the cat, however, was thought to contain what would undoubtedly have been the most wonderful and most desirable treasure of all could it have only had a real instead of an imaginary existence, for that man who was so fortunate as to possess this precious stone would have all his wishes granted.—Chambers Journal.

Why He Doesn't Work.

"For a man who doesn't work," said the housekeeper, "you have a pretty good appetite."

"Yes, ma'am," said Hungry Higgins. "That's why I don't work. If I did, I wouldn't be so satisfied with me."—Philadelphia Record.

CANDLES.

Their Mellow Light Is Fast Becoming but a Memory.

So markedly is the candle going out of use that the dictionary of a few years hence will probably have to supplement its definition with an illustration. In the glow of electric light, gas and paraffin we are much disposed to pity our immediate forefathers who had to put up with candles.

Yet we retain a strange respect for the candle in certain directions. When we wish to pay the highest reverence, we fall back upon it. The death chamber is lighted with candles. So is the church altar. We cannot but be forced also to the conclusion that higher ideas have been brought out and better matter written by candlelight than have been or probably ever will be by that of gas or electricity.

Shakespeare could not possibly have written all his plays by daylight. Indeed, it is more than probable that the touch of bohemianism in his composition, as in that of his watered-down literary descendants today, preferred night to day for turning out its best work. Hamlet's soliloquy upon the existing value of things, Portia's tribute to mercy and the advice of Polonius to Laertes as to the best way of conducting himself in life were probably written between the snuffings of a candle. In particular can one imagine the decisive snuffing and the contemptuous tossing away of the scrap of burned wax at the close of the passage hypothetically disposing of "Caesar's imperial day."—London Globe.

Read It in His Newspaper.

George Seaub, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volkszeitung. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable liniment is for sale by C. W. Milhouse.

AFTER THE BATTLE.

A VETERAN'S STORY OF A TASSELED TURKISH FEZ.

The Growsome Incident in Which He Participated at the Second Battle of Manassas—A Brave Boy and His Dying Request.

"Whenever I see a tasseled Turkish fez," said a Confederate veteran whose attention had been attracted by a smoking cap of that pattern in a Canal street window, "I am reminded of a curious and rather growsome incident of my campaigning days. It was on the morning after the second battle of Manassas," he continued in response to a request for the story, "and several of us from my company had gone over to the field in the hope of picking up a few things that we badly needed and for which the dead had no further use—waterproofs, for instance, and sound canteens."

"During the previous day's engagement you may remember that a regiment of freshly recruited New York zouaves held the crest of a hill and were charged and almost annihilated by Hood's brigade. They were mowed down like ripened grain and fell so thickly that their corpses literally carpeted the earth. I dare say it was as awful a slaughter, considering the number engaged, as occurred anywhere in the course of the war."

"Well, we hadn't gone very far when we came to this hill and began to get among the dead men. The poor fellows had been mustered into service less than a week before, and they were said to be the most gorgeously uniformed military troop ever organized. They wore scarlet Turkish trousers, blue jackets embroidered with gold bullion braid and purple fezes with long pendulous tassels."

"Being just from the outfitters, all this fine regalia was perfectly fresh and new, and somehow or other it added to the ghastliness of the spectacle on the hillside. The corpses were in all sorts of strange postures, and their fantastic costumes gave them an air of horrible grotesqueness that I couldn't begin to describe in words."

"However, to come to my point, I had picked up a fez to carry away as a relic and was about to leave the spot when I happened to notice a much handsomer specimen on the head of a little zouave stretched out, stiff and stark, a few yards away, with a handkerchief over his face. I stepped up to make a 'swap,' but had barely touched the tassel when a low, sweet toned voice under the handkerchief said, 'Please don't!'"

"For a moment," continued the veteran, "that unpleasant protest, coming from what I had supposed to be a corpse, made my hair bristle on my head. Then I lifted the handkerchief and was shocked to see the delicate, refined features of a boy not over 15. He was pale as death and evidently desperately wounded, but he looked at me calmly. 'My God,' I exclaimed, 'what a lad you are to be here!' 'I'm afraid I'm dying unless I have help,' he replied. 'Do you think the surgeons will be around pretty soon?' 'The Lord knows!' I groaned, for the boy's courage touched me to the heart. 'Your surgeons have all run away, and we only have a few, with more wounded than they can attend to.' 'Then I guess all I can do is to lie here quietly and die,' he said in the same gentle voice. 'Can you get me a little water before you go?'"

"I took his canteen and hurried down to a branch at the foot of the hill, where the first thing I saw, by the way, was the corpse of a zouave floating in a pool. I went up the stream far enough to get out of the horrible death zone, filled the canteen with pure water and was soon back at the boy's side. I gave him a drink, and he thanked me. 'Is there nothing else I can do?' I asked awkwardly, because I knew our company was under early marching orders that morning and that it would be impossible for me to linger much longer. 'Nothing at all, thank you,' he replied. 'No message to anybody?' 'No; nothing, thanks.'"

"I turned away most reluctantly and had gone only a few yards when I heard his thin voice calling me back. 'Excuse me,' he said, 'but I want you to accept this as a present,' and he handed me his fine purple fez. 'No, no,' I exclaimed, greatly embarrassed; 'I couldn't think of taking it. When I started to a little while ago, I thought you—' 'Thought I was dead, of course,' he interrupted. 'Well, I soon will be, and that other fez will do me just as well. Please put it on my head and take mine.' I saw that he would be hurt unless I did as he desired, so I took the fez and went away."

"In less than half an hour our company was on the march, and, needless to say, I never heard anything more of the little child zouave. He was badly wounded and undoubtedly died where I left him. I kept the fez a long time," added the veteran, "but it was finally lost, with other odds and ends, in the general confusion following the war. I'd give some money for it today."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The Good Effects of Apple Eating.

The apple is such common fruit that few are familiar with its remarkable efficacious properties. Everybody ought to know that the very best thing they can do is to eat apples just before retiring for the night. The apple is an excellent brain food, because it has more phosphoric acid in easily digested shape than any other vegetable known. It excites the action of the liver, promotes sound and healthy sleep, and thoroughly disinfects the mouth. That is not all. The apple agglutinates the surplus acids of the stomach, helps the kidney secretions and is one of the best preventives known of diseases of the throat.—Journal of Agriculture.

TO YOUNG WOMEN

A Denver, Colorado, Young Woman recently Wrote a Letter to Mrs. Pinkham, which Aptly Pictures the Condition of a Great Many Young Women. Read What She Says:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—This is the first opportunity I have found to write and thank you for the good your Vegetable Compound has done me. I feel better than I have for years. It seems a 'seven days' wonder' to my friends. Where I used to be pitted, everything is the opposite now, and there is not a day but some one wants to know what I have done to make myself look so well."

"Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I had constant headaches, was constipated, bloated, eyes weak and watery, bearing-down pains, pains in the small of my back and right side; took cold very easily, which always caused intense pain in the ovaries, and I did not want to go anywhere or see any one. I was called cross, but I could not help it, feeling as I did. I could not lift anything or do any hard work without suffering for days afterwards. Menstruation lasted for eight or ten days, the first three or four days being almost constant pain day and night."

Nothing in this wide world has relieved so much female suffering as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; no medicine can produce such positive proof of cures and good results; therefore, no other medicine can be "just as good."

Office women are frequently afflicted with sickness brought on by constant work in one position. Perhaps in going to the office, they get their feet wet and sit all day long with damp shoes and stockings.

Nothing in the world is so injurious. Wet feet, hard work, and confined positions have made invalids of a great many robust and ambitious young women.

A Richmond Girl's Experience.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have just purchased a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound but am advised to write you before trying it."

"I hardly know how to express myself. At times I feel well, and in less than ten minutes I am actually wretched with headache, that tired feeling, and so nervous that the sound of a door bell will make me start. I cannot walk two blocks without feeling fatigued. Menstruation has never been regular, have a slight discharge of leucorrhoea. I would like your advice, and sincerely hope I may find relief in your medicine."—Miss CLARA PORTER, Richmond, Va. (Oct. 26, 1900.)

Statement No. 2.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—It gives me great pleasure to thank you for the benefit I received from your Vegetable Compound."

"When I wrote to you I could not go up-stairs or walk a hundred yards without being completely fagged out, but to-day I can easily walk two miles. I was also very nervous and suffered from a misery in my back but these troubles are all a thing of the past. I was at a loss to describe my feelings, but now thanks to your Vegetable Compound I am a well woman."

"I advise all suffering women to write to Mrs. Pinkham, and I shall never fail to recommend your remedies to my friends."—Miss CLARA PORTER, Richmond, Va. (March 26, 1901.)

Miss Thompson's Pains are Cured.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I want to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. For several years I had suffered with loss of appetite, nausea, vomiting, constipation, palpitation of the heart, headache, pains in nearly all parts of the body. My physician said it was only indigestion, but his medicine did not help me any. I began the use of your Vegetable Compound. I have taken four bottles and now those troubles are cured. I cannot praise it enough."—Miss BELLE S. THOMPSON, Box 14, Acushnet, Mass.
